Canal and Jap.

The prospect of this country's being flooded by a tide of Japanese coolie labor, brought over in thousands to work on the Panama canal, is anything but assuring.

As Gilson Gardner and Jacob Waldeck have indicated, as a result of their special study of the situation, the Japs that come over will never go back, but will find their way into our Southern States and spread throughout the whole country.

It is a problem affecting American labor much more intimately than does even the proposition of the canal commission to purchase its ships and supplies abroad. The one might force a reduction in the price of certain products of American labor, but the other would cause demoralization in the price of American labor itself.

If half that is said of the Jap coolies be true they would be dangerous competitors in the labor markets of this country. They can live a year on what would not keep an American family a month. And they are not content to remain in menial employment, but rapidly perfect themselves in skilled labor and obtain high positions.

There is no law to keep them out, and it is not likely that Uncle Sam, since Japan has become so great a power in the world, will care to inaugurate any policy of exclusion.

Just at present the Japanese government itself has the matter under consideration. A special Japanese commission to investigate climatic and labor conditions on the isthmus and report upon the advisability of encouraging subjects of the mikado to seek employment there has finished its inquiry, but has not yet made its report. Meanwhile, the American member of the commission, secretary of the Japanese consulate at New York, says that in his own "private" opinion it would be unwise for Japan to send a large number of laborers to the isthmus, because of climatic conditions.

Ex-Governor Davis, however, who has just arrived from Colon, tells the New York newspapers that the completion of the water works and the sewerage system will make the zone as healthy as Havana is. There are now between 7,000 and 8,000 government employes in the zone, but the number of Japanese among them is not given. So far the commission have depended chiefly upon the native and Jamaican negro, who is unsatisfactory. The gate is wide open to the Jap.—Kansas City World.

Bad Odor.

A bad odor from a person's breath may be caused by many different forms of dyspepsia. It may be due to stomach catarrh, biliousness, constipation, or a case of ordinary indigestion. Whatever may be the cause, there is just one reliable cure, and that is Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin. It clears all the impurities out of your body and makes your breath as sweet as the June morning. Safe, pleasant and effective. Sold by Arcadia Valley Drug Co. at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

Official Toadyism.

The most ridiculous as well as most recent instance of official toadyism is reported this week from Washington. The superintendent of public schools in the capital city of the Republic, Alexander T. Stuart by name, has prohibited the circulation among the school children, of the May number of Our Dumb Animals. This periodical is a humane publication. Its offense consisted in urging school children not to imitate President Roosevelt in killing animals. The allusion was to the President's recent hunting trip. We quote Mr. Stuart's defense:

The articles in question in my opinion insult the President of the United States, and I regard it as my duty to call the attention of President Gordon of the board of education to them. He agreed with me that their circulation should be prohibited. I believe I was right. The articles criticized the President and are not such as should be placed in the hands of youthful children to prejudice their youthful minds against the Chief Executive.

If that criticism of Mr. Roosevelt's delight in killing is in Mr. Stuart's opinion so grave an offense against executive majesty, what would be his opinion of a publication on manners which should advise school children not to imitate Mr. Roosevelt in his use of such elegant expressions as "bully"?—Chicago Public.

That Tired Feeling.

If you are languid, depressed and incapable for work, it indicates that your liver is out of order. Herbine will assist nature to throw off headaches, rheumatism and ailments akin to nervousness and restore the energies and vitality of sound and perfect health. J. J. Hubbard, Temple, Texas, writes, March 22, 1902: "I have used Herbine for the past two years. It has done me more good than all the doctors. When I feel bad and have that tired feeling, I take a dose of Herbine. It is the best medicine ever made for chills and fever." 50c a bottle. Sold by Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

A Judge's "Remarkable Oddity."

The Boston Herald says that Judge Robert B. Frazier, of Detroit, has become somewhat conspicuous by reason of what the Detroit Free Press calls "his remarkable oddity." This "oddity" consists in "declining to take advantage of legal technicalities in a judicial recount of votes, which would have enabled him to retain his seat upon the circuit bench." The judge insists upon respecting the disclosed intent of the voter rather than accept the office upon a technicality which would vitiate the will of the voter. It is a sad commentary upon the times when an honest man becomes a "remarkable oddity," or when the refusal to override the will of the people is considered a mark of unusual virtue. A healthy public sentiment should brand a man as a scoundrel who would take advantage of a mere technicality when that technicality would thwart the known will of the voters.—The Commoner.

Infraction is Issued.

A stringent injunction has been issued against the malignant activity of dyspepsia, amongst all people, by Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin. Do not fail to invoke the powerful aid of this great enemy of all stomach and bowel disorder at the least sign of trouble in any of your digestive organs. It will promptly and surely set them right, and make you well. Try it. Sold by Arcadia Valley Drug Co. at 50c and $1. Money back if it fails.

Biglow's Many Sins.

As facts are brought out by the investigation of the Biglow defalcation it is found that speculation was only one of his sins. He went into nearly every kind of industrial enterprise and was extravagant in his living expenses and generous in his donations. He used trust money of every description, not sparing his aged relatives by blood and marriage, his victims including widows and orphans. His exposure shows him to have led a dual life for some years, posing as a business man of integrity and experience, attending important gatherings and assisting in the formation of public opinion, while at the same time he was engaged in covering up his enormous stealings.—The Commoner.

Trouble Increasing.

When your trouble with food-digestion seems to be increasing, and various pains, like stomachache, headache, backache, etc., beset you; when your bowels and liver seem continually out of order, what you need is Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin. It is safe, pleasant, and far superior to all pills or cathartic waters. Sold by Arcadia Valley Drug Co. at 50c and $1. Money back if it fails.

Commutation Tickets.

Mother's Devotion

To her children is one of the most beautiful things in life. When they are sick, the wise mother, who has taken the pains to study their best interests, promptly gives Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin. It quickly relieves pain and fever, and can never do anything but good. Try it. For sale by Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

Des Are Items.

Rev. Rubottom filled his regular appointment here Sunday; he also baptized Mrs. Lola Stamp.

Mrs. John Stevenson visited Hendrickson Sunday.

The Woodmen's ice cream supper was a success. They realized $20 from the sale of ice cream and strawberries, etc.

Allie Fitz returned home last week from Farmington.

W. Stevenson and family visited their parents Sunday on Crane Pond.

Mrs. J. S. O'Neal and Mrs. Annie Miller spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Bessie McKee.

I want to call the attention of our honorable county court to the following, taken from the Piedmont Banner:

City Treasurer A. Blaine is in receipt of a check for $600.25 from the county treasurer, being the amount due this city from the county foreign insurance tax and the county road fund. This appropriation was made by the county court last week and is based on the school enumeration.

I am not kicking, but it looks to me as though the Des Are incorporation should have her portion of this tax. Also, I want to ask what became of the $25 given Mr. Ruble for changing a road? The road was never changed.

I made a very pleasant trip to Farmington last week. Farmington is the best town in southeast Missouri. I attended the Baptist church Sunday and heard a good sermon by Rev. Rudolph from Ecclesiastes 11:5, and at 3 o'clock I heard a Baccalaureate address to the graduates of the Elmwood Seminary by Rev. Pendleton, formerly of Richmond, Va. On Decoration day I attended the exercises at the hall. Rev. Pendleton delivered a fine address. He eulogized Gen. Grant, Lee and Jackson, and said in part that the Grand Army should belong to the Grand Army of Heaven, as they soon would be called to answer the long roll of death, and then they would get a pension that would never fail. I also attended the closing exercises of Elmwood Seminary. The annual address was delivered by the Rev. J. W. Lee, pastor of St. John's M. E. Church, of St. Louis. His subject was very much alive. He said in part: "I am rich; for any man in good health is rich. Here is the St. Louis electric R. R. that cost thousands of dollars and lots of worry, and all I can do is to ride on it, and I can ride for 5c. And here are the St. Louis papers that cost thousands of dollars, and all we can do is to read them, and we can read one for one cent a day. Suppose every man, woman and child was a millionaire, what would become of us? We could not get a meal cooked or a garment washed, for you never heard of a millionaire cooking a meal." The elocution and piano recital was a credit to the young ladies: Misses Robbie Pipkins, Ethel Morris and Apley. Miss Ethel Morris received the medal for music.

Cures Old Sores.

Westmoreland, Kans., May 5, 1902. Ballard Snow Liniment Co.: "Your Snow Liniment cured an old sore on the side of my chin that was supposed to be a cancer. The sore was stubborn and would not yield to treatment, until I tried Snow Liniment, which did the work in short order. My sister, Mrs. Sophia J. Carson, Allensville, Minn. Co., Pa., has a sore and mistrusts that it is a cancer. Please send her a 50c bottle." Sold by Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

Sabula Items.

After so long an absence, I will try to write again.

We were sorry to hear of the death of our sheriff. His family has our greatest sympathy.

Rev. Peoples filled his regular appointment here Sunday.

Sam Shy visited home folk here Sunday. He returned to his mill, two miles east of Arcadia, Monday.

Dr. Ralph McHenry, dentist, was in town Monday and Tuesday on business.

There will be an ice cream supper at the Sabula school house next Saturday night, June 10th, for the purpose of buying an organ for the Sunday school and church. All are cordially invited. Come and bring your friends and have a good time. Good order will be kept.

A crowd of young people went to Black River fishing, Friday, and stayed until Sunday. They caught plenty of fish and cold. All report a good time. Also, Add Reese and family went Sunday.

H. B. Counts is on sick list. Mrs. C. L. Collins, who has been on the sick list for so long, is almost well again.

Little Arthur Hughes has the fever.

We are glad to hear that Miss Lula Polk is going to be our school teacher this year. She gave perfect satisfaction last year.

Dr. R. T. Minor was on our streets Monday, on his way to his old home in Virginia. He will be gone only a short time. We will miss him badly and long to see him back.
